

English Rose Tea Selections

We serve only the finest teas imported from Taylors of Harrogate, est. 1886, who were recently awarded 'Best Cup of Tea in England' by the British Tea Council. Most of our teas are loose leaf, however we can decant the tea for your convenience.

Small Pot of Tea $3.00

Large Pot of Tea $6.00

Blended Black Teas

are fully fermented teas, good with milk or lemon, or served plain:

English Breakfast

great any time of day, the leaf is small and the infusion full-bodied and rich

Irish Breakfast

a rich, strong and full-bodied tea with a distinctive, malty taste

Earl Grey

natural oil of bergamot is the light and delicate flavor of this famous black china tea

Teas from Ceylon

Fine Ceylon

a rich flavor, bright golden color and quite aromatic, good with lemon

Teas from China

Lapsang Souchong

wonderfully robust wood smoke aroma, yet mild tarry taste (another of Jo's favorites!)

China Rose Petal

soothing tea, layered with rose petals for a delicate fragrance

Formosa Oolong

semi-green tea with an amber color and aroma of peaches

Teas from India

Afternoon Darjeeling

known as the 'champagne' of teas, a muscatel flavor and exquisite bouquet

Assam

rich, bright color and distinctive full-bodied malty taste, great taken with milk (Jo's favorite tea)

Green Tea

unfermented tea, refreshing aroma best served plain or with lemon

Jasmine Blossom Green Tea

created from an ancient Chinese recipe, this tea combines tea leaves with jasmine flowers for a light and fragrant tea; best taken plain

Herbal Tisanes - decaffeinated

Fruit & Honey Tisane

fruit, herb and honey flavored tea, light and aromatic, great for younger guests

Chamomile Flowers Tisane

soothing and relaxing drink, made from chamomile flowers from Egypt and Spain

Peppermint Tisane

pure peppermint leaves, dried quickly to preserve their refreshing aromatic flavor

Flavored Teas

Mango, Peach or Passion Fruit

Duchess of Bedford's Formal Afternoon Tea

Anna, Duchess of Bedford, is said to have developed the very first afternoon tea in 1840, to alleviate her 'sinking feelings' as she hungrily awaited dinner at the fashionably late hour of eight o'clock. She soon had friends convinced that there was no finer way to spend an afternoon, than chatting over tea sandwiches, cakes and tidbits.

Our traditional English style afternoon tea is served on a 3 tiered cake stand, using our finest antique bone china and consists of the following:

Tier 1

Chicken & Walnut Sandwiches
Fresh Cucumber, Orange & Mint Sandwiches
Smoked Salmon & Cream Cheese Sandwiches

Tier 2

2 Scones with English preserves and Devonshire cream

Tier 3

selection of cakes and pastries

Pot of Tea
$21.95 per person

We are happy to provide the following afternoon tea for our younger guests
